

Dialogue: [episode 10]

Dean: Oh, no!

Nana: What's wrong?

Cooper: I think he's just blown a tire.

May: It's the back tire.

Dean: Oh, this is terrible!

Cooper: There aren't any bike shops near here.

May: But there are quite a few bikers.

Nana: Huh, maybe there are bike shops up ahead.

Cooper: Nana's right. There should be some shops.

May: Let's leave the bikes and all of us take a walk then!

Dean: I'm sorry to wreck everybody's fun.

Cooper: Don't talk like that. A good walk is a lot of fun.

May: That's right! Let's not let this spoil our day.

Nana: Hey, May's right!. We shouldn't let a little thing like this get us down.

Cooper: That's my little sister! We have a blast every time we're out with her.

May: Wait, I think we should take our stuff, not leave it with the bikes.

Cooper: I say we should go to Fisherman's Wharf in Tamshui and take the ferry.

Nana: Good idea. We can take advantage of the time and go for a hike on the other side.

Dean: Great idea. This sounds even more terrific than the original plan.

May: Yeah, no reason to get all down over the flat tire! The scenery around here is fantastic.
