

Episode7

文法

1. To teach students via the Internet

解析：“Via the Internet” means through the Internet. The phrase means to use the Internet to teach the students. “To use (something) to do (something)” or, “to use A to do B,” is a useful phrase.

例句：I use the computer to do my homework; I use this key to unlock the door.

2. To arrange for something

解析：To arrange for something is to make plans or preparations before doing something else.

例句：In our dialogue, the school brothers and school sisters made preparations so that Doug could come to the school; they arranged for everything.

例句：When taking a trip, one needs to plan where to stay overnight and how to go from one place to another. Therefore, one needs to arrange for accommodation and transportation.